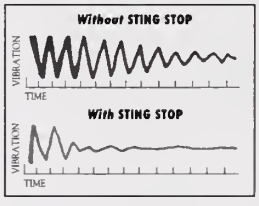
TPX® AND C405 – A RECORD-BREAKING COMBINATION.

Coach Mike Gillespie's University of Southern California team hammered 14 home runs with the new TPX C405 bat at the 1995 College World Series, setting a new record. Eight different Trojan players cleared the fences. And now, the ultimate offensive weapon is ready for your team, too.

Its hard-hitting power starts with the C405 alloy. But the real advantage comes from combining this strong, yet lightweight alloy with state-of-the-art technology available exclusively from Louisville Slugger. Like our patented Sims Sting Stop™ System, which dramatically reduces vibration at contact. Hitters tell us it provides the most solid feel they've ever experienced. Plus, our Pro Cup™ End Cap reduces bat weight for maximum bat speed, resulting in better control and hitting distance. The TPX C405 bat. It's the only one that can give your team all these high performance features.



Patented Sims Sting Stop System dramatically reduces bat vibration for a more solid feel at impact.

Cushioned grip provides for comfort and control.

State-of-the-art C405 alloy construction combines the highest level of tensile strength with a 5 ounce less-than-length, thin wall design for maximum performance.

TOM BRADLEY

Head Coach

555-442-4, 17 years

When Tom Bradley returned to his alma mater six years ago, he gave the Terrapin team its first winning season in several years. It wasn't a surprise to the College Park community that Bradley could turn things around at Shipley Field. Success seems to follow the Maryland graduate - On the playing field, in the classroom or as a coach, he has excelled in every aspect.

Returning to his alma mater in 1991, Bradley replaced his former coach Elton S. "Jack" Jackson. In his first season at Maryland, Bradley led the Terps to their first winning season (29-27-1) in 8 years. In the past five seasons, the squads have averaged 25 wins, defeating several nationally ranked teams along the way.

Bradley earned his 500th career victory in 1993, becoming one of only a handful of active coaches to make such a mark. He enters his 18th season with a career record of 555-442-4.

Bradley, a former Terrapin star, is the ACC career leader in ERA (1.33) and ninth on the ACC all-time list with 10.70 strikeouts per game. The Terps placed second in the ACC in Bradley's sophomore and junior years. Bradley was a Sporting News third team All-America selection in 1968 and a two-time All-ACC honoree.

Following his junior year, Bradley was drafted by the California Angels in the fifth round of the free agent draft.

After playing Class A ball for the Angels in 1969, he was elevated to the major leagues. The Angels traded Bradley to the Chicago White Sox where he won 15 games in both 1971 and 1972, striking out over 200 hitters each year.

In 1973, Bradley was traded to San Francisco. He won 13 games for the Giants and was the Giants' starter on Opening Day of 1974. During that season, he injured the rotator cuff in his pitching arm.

Bradley retired from professional baseball in 1977 while playing for the Oakland Athletics. He ended his career with 55 wins and a 3.72 ERA.

Soon after his retirement, Bradley became the pitching coach for St. Mary's College of California (1978). After one year, Bradley took a head coaching position at Jacksonville University (1979).

Bradley compiled a career record of 431-291-1 in his 12-year tenure with the Dolphins, lifting the program to new heights. In 1989, Jacksonville finished with a 42-22-0 mark and the school's first Sun Belt Conference title. The Dolphins were ranked among the nation's Top 25 during six seasons under Bradley, including final Top 25 rankings in Baseball America and the Collegiate Baseball/ESPN polls in his last year (1990). Bradley also helped bring night baseball to Jacksonville when the New York Yankees donated lights for their home field.

Numerous Bradley understudies have continued their baseball careers after leaving his tutelage. Over 70 student-athletes have signed professional baseball contracts including 15 Terrapins.

Bradley was also an outstanding student at the University of Maryland. During the same year he was drafted (1968), he was named Maryland's Scholar Athlete of the Year - the highest award given to the top academic and athletic student-athlete. He returned to school and graduated Cum Laude in 1972 with a major in Latin and a minor in Greek.

Bradley's wife Kathy is a second grade teacher at Washington Episcopal School in Bethesda. They have two children. Daughter Alix is a junior at St. John's College High School. Son Andy is in eighth grade at St. Mark's School.

KELLY KULINA

Kelly Kulina begins his sixth year on the Terrapin staff and his seventh year overall assisting Tom Bradley.

Kulina serves as the Terrapin third base coach and recruiting coordinator. In addition, he is Maryland's instructor for base running and hitting. Kulina has expanded the program through raising funds for the program with outfield signs and sponsorships.

Maryland's baseball roster is evidence of Kulina's recruiting prowess. He is primarily responsible for guiding the best prep and junior college baseball talent in the state of Maryland to the flagship institution. Kulina's latest recruiting classes are among the best to arrive in College Park.

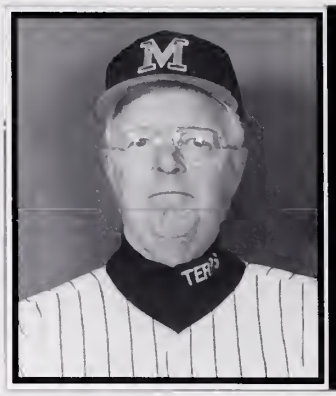
Kulina starred in the outfield for Jacksonville under Head Coach Tom Bradley in 1982-84. He was a member of the 1983 Sun Belt Conference All-Tournament Team with a .779 batting average. Jacksonville tallied an impressive record of 77-39 during Kulina's two-year tenure and was ranked as high as 17th nationally.

Before going to Jacksonville, Kulina played at South Georgia College, earning All-South Region honors. In 1980, he led the team in hitting with a .398 batting average.

Kulina began his coaching career at Wayne County High School where he compiled a 46-9 record in two seasons. The team finished with a 24-3 record in 1988 and was ranked 17th in the nation by Collegiate Baseball Magazine and USA Today. In 1989, he was the assistant head coach at Palm Beach Community College.

Kulina moved to Jacksonville in 1990, managing the Dolphin defense, hitting and overall recruiting. In his second year, Kulina tutored Marc Marini to a .439 batting average, the nation's eighth best mark. The Dolphins' defense also tallied the 16th best in fielding percentage in the nation.

Kulina graduated with a degree in physical education and health from Jacksonville in 1984. He earned his master's degree in sports science in 1989 from the United States Sports Academy. Kulina and his wife, Lee Ann, have a son Kelly and a daughter Lavin.



JIM FLACK

Assistant Coach

Jim Flack begins his 14th season as an assistant coach on the Maryland staff and his sixth year working with head coach Tom Bradley. Flack serves as Maryland's first base coach and works with the Terrapin catchers.

Flack began his coaching career at Kimball High School in Royal Oak, Michigan in 1960. In addition to his high school duties, Flack coached in the Birmingham American Legion League from 1957 to 1962.

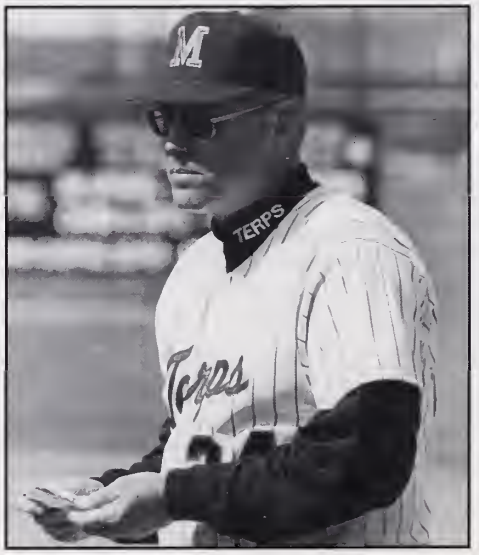
In 1990, Flack was the Head Coach for the Maryland Orioles, an International Baseball Development Team which traveled to Czechoslovakia and Poland. Accompanying Flack were a trio of Maryland players: Dave Armstrong, Joe Meury and Jason Umberger.

Flack came to the University of Maryland as an instructor in the Department of History in 1967. He currently holds the position of Associate Professor in the department. He has had numerous works published in historical publications.

Flack earned his Doctorate in History from Wayne State University in 1968. Prior to that, he earned his Master's from Wayne State in 1963 and his bachelor's from Albion College in 1959. Flack earned his undergraduate degree in history with minors in education and physical education.

He is a member of several professional organizations including the American Baseball Coaches Association, the American Federation of Teachers, the American Historical Association and the United States Baseball Federation.

Flack and his wife Jan have three children: Jim, Hilary and Jake.



Tom Bradley (left) has surrounded himself with an excellent staff.

DON FONTANA

Assistant Coach

Don Fontana joins the Maryland staff this season to assist with the Terrapin pitchers.

A 1993 honors graduate of Duquesne University, Fontana was a three-year letterwinner at catcher. He was limited to a back-up role his final two seasons after suffering a shoulder injury as a sophomore. While at Duquesne, the Dukes set school records for Atlantic 10 conference wins and most Division I victories in a season.

During the summer of 1993, he served the Niagara Falls Rapids Professional Club, a branch of the Detroit Tigers, as an intern. He managed public relations and coordinated youth baseball clinics for the 1993 New York-Penn League champions.

Fontana served as an assistant baseball coach at The Catholic Univeristy of America last season. He worked with the Cardinal catchers and hitters while assisting in the day-to-day operations of the program. The squad finished 25-15, its best in 15 years, and graduated the Toronto Blue Jays' 31st round draft pick, shortstop John Douglas.

Last summer, Fontana assisted the Vienna Mavericks of the Clark Griffith Summer League, coaching against several Terrapins. Fontana is a freelance high school sports writer for the Gazette Newspapers and is employed as a paralegal assistant for the law firm of McNeily, Rosenfield and Rubenstein. He holds a bachelors degree in journalism from Duquesne and is continuing his education towards a masters in that discipline.

Fontana is single and resides in Potomac, Md.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

There is an insistence in the Maryland baseball program that student-athletes get a degree in a career field that will enhance their life after College Park. The insistence is underlined by Coach Tom Bradley and his staff, by the athletic administration and by the Academic Support Unit of the Department of Athletics.

A successful student almost always equates to a successful athlete. The commitment to academic excellence requires discipline, dedication and motivation. These are the same characteristics needed for an athlete to excel on the court or field.

Toward the goal of a successful academic experience for each student-athlete, the athletic department created the Academic Support Unit. Each ASU staff member is responsible for working with specific sports, counseling each student-athlete individually.

The department operates an ever-expanding computer room and an extensive library of most of the books an athlete will need through her academic career.

ASU organizes over 100 tutors from all academic disciplines. Student-athletes can receive specialized one-on-one training in any class by a qualified tutor.

In addition to individual academic counseling, the staff operates a technological computer room, where student-athletes gain hands-on experience with computer software and hardware systems. The ASU runs a comprehensive bookroom in which student-athletes can find various text books they will utilize during their undergraduate years.

The Academic Support Unit has a positive effect on the athletes and plays an important role in University of Maryland athletics.

ASU offers a variety of programs which include:

- Personal academic assessment
- Academic advising and counseling
- Supervised study
- Learning and study skill programs
- Group and individual tutoring
- Computer training and usage
- Career mentor
- Summer internships

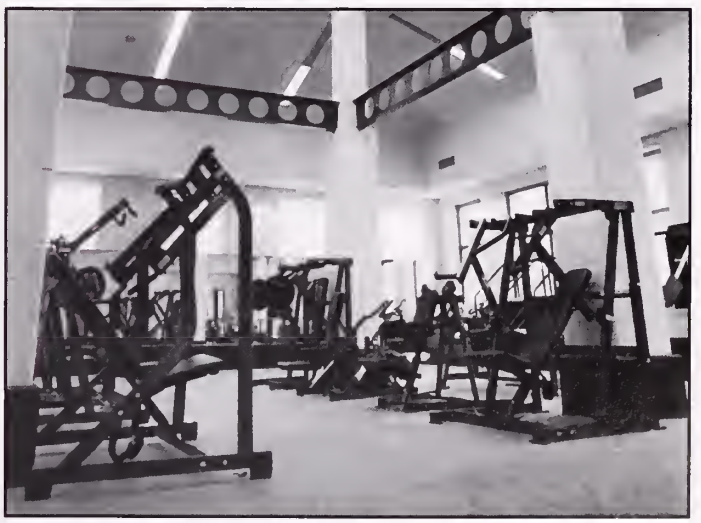
STRENGTH TRAINING & CONDITIONING

The physical preparation of a student-athlete to compete in baseball is a critical component of the overall program. Emphasis is put on physical conditioning not only to enhance performance, but also prevent injury.

Strength coach Dwight Galt employs a program that is geared towards maximizing athletic development. Damian Stephens joined the staff this summer and assists with the baseball program.

University of Maryland student-athletes are fortunate to train in one of the premier weight training facilities in the country. The Maryland Weight Room Complex features 7,200 square feet of space that holds training equipment to meet the needs of the athletes. The facility includes an 11-ton free weight system with Olympic platform, as well as state-of-the-art electrolyzed and plate-loaded equipment.



THE UNIVERSITY AT COLLEGE PARK

These are great days at the University of Maryland at College Park. The university has been designated as the state's flagship campus with a mandate to become one of the nation's leading public universities. Individuals from all corners of the university are encouraged to aspire toward excellence, to think great thoughts and to become immersed in an educational enterprise of the highest caliber. There is an unmistakable momentum for change and a sense of heightened expectation at College Park--Maryland is choosing quality.

The faculty have enthusiastically endorsed a general education program that began in 1990 that is a blueprint for comprehensive changes in the undergraduate experience. The campus has been reducing its undergraduate enrollment, improving the ratio between faculty and students, raising admissions standards, revamping the University Honors Program, strengthening the advising system, supporting expanded undergraduate research and encouraging innovations in teaching.

Our location adds to the excitement on campus, too. Few regions in the nation have the intellectual, cultural and physical resources to compare with those in the Baltimore-Washington, DC. corridor. College Park's location astride that corridor means that Maryland undergraduates may tap these resources to their fullest through internships, research projects, cooperative work-study and other programs offering hands-on experience.

The state of Maryland is unrivaled in its scenic beauty, its rich heritage, and its wealth of educational, recreational, and cultural opportunities. From the mountain passes of Garrett County in the west, to the sand dunes of the Eastern Shore and the cosmopolitan excitement of Baltimore and Washington, D.C., there is unparalleled variety of experiences and resources available to students at the university.

We invite you to take a closer look at the University of Maryland, its extensive academic programs, faculty, research facilities, student activities and support services and the resources and opportunities it offers. See for yourself the number of different ways in which Maryland is choosing quality. There has never been a better time to choose Maryland.

EVERYBODY TALKS ABOUT QUALITY TIME. HERE'S WHERE YOU GET IT.

The most important reason to fly USAir and USAir Express isn't the nearly 5,000 flights we offer to cities across the U.S., Canada, Bermuda, the Caribbean and Europe every business day. Or the friendly service. Or even the Frequent Traveler Program, where you get a free ticket at just 20,000 miles.

It's something much smaller, yet more significant. The chance to be home in time for a game of catch. To have dinner with the family. To sleep in your own bed instead of some hotel.

For that, you need same day, out and back service. The very thing USAir has built its reputation on for the last 43 years.

So if you think there's more to life than work, maybe what you need is an airline that works a little harder. So you don't have to. Contact your travel consultant or call USAir at 1(800)428-4322.
